BRIEF CHURCH NOTES.

Dr. Tudor, of the Broad-Street Methodist church, preached a special sermon Sunday night to the young ladies of the Richmond Female Institute, who occupied seats in the central portion of the church. The congregation was very large. Dr. Tudor's sermon was on "The Beauty of Human Nature," and the interesting subject was treated in a masterly manner. Dr. Nelson, the president of the institute, offered the closing prayer.

Mr. J. D. K. Sleight, presbyterial superintendent of Sabbath schools for East Hanover Presbytery, spent Sunday at Newport News and addressed a large Sunday-school gathering in celebrating the third anniversary of the Presbyterian school in that magic city. Three years ago Mr. Sleight organized this school, which has grown from a mere handful to a large and thriving body, skilfully managed by Mr. De Witt Crane and a corps of faithful helpers. The new pastor of the church, Rev. E. T. Wellford, son of Judge B. R. Wellford, is winning friends daily and building up a prosperous, working church. Steps have already been taken toward the building of a handsome new house of worship.

Mr. Phillips had been registrar at Shoemaker's about twelve months, but seut in his resignation last Friday in order that he might qualify as one of the United States supervisors for the district, as he had previously received the appointment from Chief-Supervisor M. F. Pleasants.

Prior to his resignation he had registered every properly qualified white and colored voter who had applied to him. He could not fill both the position of registrar and supervisor, as one was a State and the other a Federal office. Efforts were accordingly made to have another registrar appointed, but this did not prove such an easy matter as had been anticipated, and no other was secured until late Saturday afternoon, when Mr. D. S. Brown was appointed. Shortly after his qualification the time in which persons were allowed to register expired. COULD NOT FILL TWO POSITIONS.

Mr. Mercdith argued on the same line and persisted that the very act of acceptance of the Federal office on the part of Mr. Phillips made a vacancy in the State office. Partisan feeling, he said, would not be control of the same to be control of the same line and the same line

Thornbill and J. P. Woodward. Mr. Vaden spoke in beautiful terms of the exemplary life of the deceased and mentioned the fact that Mr. Bevill had been a member of the church for twenty-six years, during which time he had rendered efficient service as a Christian worker. The choir sang several very pretty hymns, one of which was according to the request of Mr. Bevill.

The seats between the two aisles were occupied by members of the orders to which the deceased belonged. The remains were interred in Maury cemetery, where the turial services were conducted according to the rituals of the fraternal organizations. The pall-bearers were: Active—Messrs, Thomas Attkinson, Vernon Bradshaw, T. A. Davidson, R. L. Roberts, T. H. Betty, T. J. Jewett, R. A. Bangh, and Isaiah Roach. Honorary—Captain E. T. Morris, Captain Woodrum, Dr. T. P. Mathews, Judge William I. Clopton, and Messrs, H. Fitzgerald, J. C. Sneilings, R. B. W. Beattie, and John O'Brien.

Mr. Bevill had been sick several weeks with typhoid-fever, and was thought to be improving, consequently his death was quite a shock to the community. He was in the 38th year of his age, and leaves a wife and five little children. CHESTERFIFELDIAMS INDIGUARY.

The citizens of Chesterfield are becoming indignant about the county authorities not taking any decisive steps to quell the outrages being perpetrated in the neighborhood of Tinsley's store by four Turkish or Italian peddlers. These men attacked Mr. W. S. Blankard again on Saturday in the broad day-time. It will be remembered that this gentleman, who is the proprietor of a saw-mill in that vicinity, was assaulted and stabbed in the leg on Thursday night last by the imported venders. The men have been camping in this locality for some days, and the people of that neighborhood say they could be easily captured if the authorities would put forth any effort to accomplish this end. There is some talk about the organization of a posse to drive these dangerous characters out of the community. The citizens are becoming very indignant over the matter, and, it is said, are going armed for their personal safety.

Manual Training in Public Schools.

A regular meeting of the Council Committee on Schools was held in the Council chamber yesterday evening. A petition from the Executive Committee of the teachers of the white schools of the city asking for an increase of salary was referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Stratton presented a communication from Professor C. E. Vawter, superintendent of the Miller Manual Training School, at Crozet, Va., in relation to the introduction of manual training in the public schools of Richmond. Mr. Stratton thought the committee should fully consider this matter and go up to the Miller school to see it in operation. It was finally decided to transfer the communication to the chairman with the request that he acquire all possible information upon this question and impart it later on to the committee. James Robinson, the athletic trainer at Princeton Coilege, Princeton, N. J., says:

"I have found it imperative to have sure and simple remedies on hand in case of cuts, bruses, strains, sprains, coids, rheumatism, etc. Shortly after entering upon my profession, I discovered such a remedy in Alcock's Porous Piasters. I tried other plasters, but found them too harsh and irritating. Alcock's Porous Piasters give almost instantaneous relief, and their strengthening power is remarkable. In cases of weak back put two plasters on the small of the back, and in a short time you will be capable of quite severe exercise. In "sprint" and "distance" races and jumping, the muscles or tendons in the legs and feet sometimes weaken. This can invariably be relieved by cutting the plaster in marrow strips, so as to give free motion, and applying on muscles affected." Of Interest to Athletes.
